

Gift of Life Institute Virtual Classroom Trainings (2020)

Improving Organ Authorization Rates Utilizing the Dual Advocacy® Model (VCT)

- March 1–April 4; October 18–November 21
- Virtual classroom training
 - Conducted online; five weeks; approximately three hours per week
 - Combination of eLearning modules, instructor-led webinars, threaded discussion boards, WebEncounter, online assignments and assessments
- Targeted Audience: Donation professionals conducting family conversations for organ donation

Improving Tissue Authorization Rates Utilizing the Dual Advocacy® Model (VCT)

- January 19–February 29; September 6–October 17
- Virtual classroom training
 - Conducted online; six weeks; approximately three hours per week
 - Combination of eLearning modules, instructor-led webinars, threaded discussion boards, WebEncounter, online assignments and assessments
- Targeted Audience: Donation professionals conducting family conversations for tissue donation

Hospital Development - Building Strong Hospital Partnerships (VCT)

- May 10–June 6; September 13–October 10
- Virtual classroom training
 - Conducted online; four weeks; approximately three hours per week
 - Combination of eLearning modules, instructor-led webinars, threaded discussion boards, WebEncounter, online assignments and assessments
- Examines the elements of hospital service planning with an emphasis on designing strategic solutions for improving outcomes
- Target Audience: Learners who have been exposed to the basic principles and practices related to hospital development for organ donation

For more information: Theresa A. Daly at tdaly@giftoflifeinstitute.org

401 North 3rd Street • Philadelphia, PA 19123
• 215-599-2025 • www.giftoflifeinstitute.org